Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.

From Pope Francis'
Homily at Daily Mass on February 14, 2014

You cannot think of a stationary
Christian: a Christian that remains stationary is sick in their Christian identity. The Christian is a disciple to walk, to move.

Spiritual growth is a thing.

The Promise of the Holy Spirit

I In the first book, O Theophilus, I have dealt with all that Jesus began to do and teach, <sup>2</sup>until the day when he was taken up, after he had given commands through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. <sup>3</sup>He presented himself alive to them after his suffering by many proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God.
<sup>4</sup>And while staying<sup>1</sup> with them not to depart from them

THE ACTS

OF THE APOSTLES
For the Introduction to Acts see page 1058

<sup>15</sup>In those days brothers (the community about 120) and said had to be fulfilled, what beforehand by the Lord, saying, Judas, who betrayed Jesus, must be lost, and another must be chosen to take his place.
